Next 4 Weeks To Be Rough In Legislature

Many 'Must' Bills Crowd Calendars of Assembly Committees

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's 175 legislators return to Columbus today after a five-day vacation. They were wise if they got a good rest because the next four weeks will be rough ones as controlling Republicans try to end the working session.

Scores of "must" bills are crowding the calendars of legislative committees, but in a session-closing drive, floor calendars get equally long. Often lengthy wrangles during floor sessions cancel out scheduled committee hearings and that is a matter of concern to legislative leaders right now.

The rules in the legislature prohibit a committee from meeting while a floor session of its house is in progress.

For instance, take the problem of the Senate Finance Committee which is studying the $2 billion budget bill. Until the committee finishes its study, the Senate cannot act on the big money bill. But if long floor sessions cancel out very many of the committee's scheduled hearings, the budget bill will be delayed in reaching the floor.

Finance Committee Chairman William H. Daddens, R-Hamilton, has scheduled a meeting "after the session" this afternoon to get additional information from Liquor Director Richard C. Crouch. That might mean any time from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m., depending on when the floor session ends. If the session runs past 6 p.m., the hearing probably will be washed out.

Other finance hearings are scheduled tonight, Thursday morning, Thursday night and Friday morning. The interest peak probably will come Thursday night when the committee considers the budget for the Welfare Department in which the House reduced appropriation requests by about $15 million.

An example of the type of calendars which will confront lawmakers from now to the end of the working session is the House schedule for Thursday which includes 15 bills, among them the congressional redistricting proposal and a measure to discontinue the use of tax stamp impressions on beer containers.

Before the final gavel falls on the working sessions of the 104th General Assembly, there probably will be some legislative decision on the matter of increasing employer contributions to the unemployment compensation fund. A half-dozen years ago, the fund had money coming out its ears—about $640 million. Now the fund is down to somewhat more than $100 million and is in danger of being flat broke within two years unless the legislature takes some action.

Increased unemployment in the last six years plus a refund to employers in 1955 have contributed to the precarious state of the fund. Also contributing to the fund's low level was an increase in jobless benefits voted two years ago without a corresponding increase in rates.

Today's scheduled floor votes in the two houses come pretty much under the "cats-and-dogs" category. Bigger things are ahead, however.

British Rap Reds For Blocking Talks

GENEVA (AP)—Britain formally accused the Soviet Union today of blocking the Geneva negotiations to halt the nuclear armaments race.

Sir Michael Wright, British delegate to the deadlocked three-power test ban talks, expressed "intense regret" of the British government over the Soviet attitude in the negotiations.

He severely criticized the Soviet delegate, Semyon K. Tsarapkin, for rejecting out-of-hand a Western compromise proposal, presented Monday, to lower the number of inspections on the site of suspicious earth tremors in the Soviet Union.

Federal Complaints Dismissed In Alabama Racial Strife

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A federal judge today dismissed a Justice Department race rioting complaint against the Birmingham, Ala., police department and one of three Ku Klux Klan organizations.

The ruling came shortly after the Justice Department rested its case in an injunction suit against police in Birmingham and Montgomery and three Klan factions growing out of recent "Freedom Rider" mob violence.

U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. refused to throw out the complaint against the Montgomery police and the other two KKK organizations, and four individuals. He dismissed the complaint against the Federated Ku Klux Klan Inc., and Lester C. Hawkins of Montgomery, identified by the Justice Department as one of its officers.

During the second day of testimony before U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. three witnesses refused to answer some of the questions put to them. They pleaded the Fifth Amendment, saying answers might tend to incriminate them.

One was cited for contempt after he refused, for a while, to tell the judge who advised him to use the Fifth Amendment plea.

Charles D. Prince, district manager of the Southern Bell Telephone Co., was the final witness on the second day. A government attorney had started to ask for records of any phone calls between Anniston and a Klan leader when the judge recessed for the night.

Testimony so far has shown that biracial groups of Freedom Riders met with violence in Anniston and Birmingham on May 14 and in Montgomery on May 20. Also in Montgomery Tuesday, the Alabama Court of Appeals upheld the conviction of 12 Negroes arrested in a series of sit-ins, ruling that a merchant can serve which customers he sees fit.

Ten Negro students were fined $100 and costs each and sentenced to 30 days in jail under a city ordinance which makes it unlawful to remain on the property of another after being warned to leave.

Two Negro leaders, the Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth and the Rev. Charles Billups were convicted of organizing the sit-in demonstrations. Elsewhere, eight more integrationists arrived at Jackson, Miss., and followed their predecessors to jail as the Freedom Rider movement continued.

The riders jailed Tuesday—five white and three Negroes—rode a train instead of a bus and were arrested when they tried to use white facilities at the railroad station in Jackson.

In Miami, 25 Negro teen-age boys in an impromptu swim-in at an undesignated beach drew a crowd of 300 shoving, shouting Memorial Day bathers and boaters. Police brought the situation under control and prevented any outbreak of violence.

Man Locked In Car Trunk By Robber

WILLOUGHBY, Ohio (AP)—A construction supervisor told Willoughby police early today after they found him locked in the trunk of his car he was kidnapped two days ago by a hitch-hiker and robbed of $1,900.

He was identified as Reece Foltz, 45, of Waukegan, Ill., in charge of a construction project the past two weeks for the Rust Engineering Co. of Pittsburgh.

Police, making a routine cruise, said they forced open the trunk about 3:30 a.m. after they heard a man call for help.

Foltz told police he left his Cleveland rooming house Monday to return to Pittsburgh for another assignment. He said he picked up a hitch-hiker on the Willow Freeway, U.S. 21, in Cuyahoga Heights en route to the Ohio Turnpike.

After Foltz stopped a short time later to wipe his fogged windows, he said, the hitch-hiker pulled a pistol and ordered him in the back. Foltz said the man took $500 from his wallet, and after forcing him into the trunk, found a brown envelope beneath the front seat containing $1,400 of company funds.

Tuesday night.

He is due tonight in Bratislava, near Slovakia's border with Austria, and will stay there until Friday. A Prague spokesman for the official Czechoslovak news agency CTK, disclosing this Tuesday night, said a Communist summit session "is possible, but as far as we know, nothing is certain yet."

Rusk Says Free World Must Increase Arms

State Secretary Feels 'We Can Afford To Do What Has To Be Done'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the free world must arm to meet Communist aggression at every level from the thermonuclear holocaust to assassination in the jungle.

Rusk opened the administration's argument for a $4.8-billion foreign aid program by telling the Senate Foreign Relations Committee: "We can afford to do what has to be done."

If the United States fails to undertake a sufficient effort, Rusk said, it must expect the failure of other nations to meet the demands of their people for a better life and from many of these nations an inevitable collapse.

In order to testify before the Senate group, Rusk delayed his departure for Paris to join President Kennedy in conversations with French President Charles de Gaulle.

While the secretary put most of his emphasis on the economic aspects of the program he cautioned that the wider distribution of power increases the hazards of world affairs in a nuclear age.

Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said events of the past year have cast many doubts on administration of the military and economic assistance programs abroad. He said there have been too many examples of countries in which the programs have been corrupted or frustrated in their aim of promoting freedom.

Fulbright committee chairman, made his observations in a statement prepared for reading at the opening of the morning session.

Rusk delayed his departure for Paris to join President Kennedy in his talks with President Charles de Gaulle to give the big mutual security measure a top level send off.

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., a member of Fulbright's committee said Kennedy's request will be sharply trimmed by Congress.

"More money is not the crying need," Aiken said in an interview. "What the program needs is well-qualified, well-trained personnel to administer it without better administration; more money will only make its operation worse. I'm for giving whatever can be used effectively and honestly."

Fulbright said he hoped the committee could complete hearings during the next two weeks so the Senate can complete action by the end of June.

Fire Destroys Barn, Contents In Monroe Twp.

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—Edna Gardner Whyte, veteran woman flier from Fort Worth, Tex., Tuesday night was announced as the unofficial winner of the All Women's International Air Race.

Mrs. Whyte, three-time winner of the event and defending champion, averaged 120.7 miles per hour on the 565-mile flight from Fort Myers, Fla., and her plus factor was 11.7 per cent over the plane's rating.

Mrs. Whyte, holder of 49 race trophies, flew a Cessna 120 with Martha Wright of Grapevine, Tex., as co-pilot.

Second place went to Mrs. Margaret Callaway of Wilmington, Ohio, with Paula Jane Schultz of Cincinnati as co-pilot. They were flying a Cessna 140, averaged 121 miles per hour and had a plus 8 per cent rating.

Third was Margo Callaway, daughter of Margaret and a student at the University of Rochester. She was flying a Cessna 175 and had Ruth Eells of Columbus, Ohio, a student at Ohio State, as co-pilot.

Mrs. Whyte received the top prize of $1,000 and a trophy from Sir Robert Stapledon, governor of the Bahamas. The other five leaders shared $1,500 in prize money.

The 22 women pilots left Fort Myers Saturday morning. They were socked in by bad weather at Fort Lauderdale until Sunday and were again held up by bad weather until Tuesday, when they finished the flight.

Stock Mart Moves Higher, Trade Heavy

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved moderately higher in heavy trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 90 stocks at noon was up .50 at 250.20 with industrials up .60, rails up .30 and utilities up .20.

The advance was selective, fractional gains among key stocks outnumbering losers.

Gains of more than a point by some of the blue chips added a note of strength but there was little in the way of group leadership.

Steels were mixed. Motors were easy.

American Telephone continued its rebound of Friday, adding 1 1/2. Du Pont was up a point at the start but traded up 1/4 as the session wore on. GM was up 1/4 at the start but later traded off 1/8. Texas Gulf Producing rose 3 points.

American Cyanamid advanced 4 1/2.

Zenith advanced 2 points, Republic Aviation 1 1/2 and Woolworth added another point.

Fractional losses were shown by Ford and Chrysler. U.S. Steel was down 1/4 and Bethlehem .

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .79 at 697.08. Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were steady.

Commission OK's Memorial Hall Improvements

The Pickaway County Board of Commissioners Monday gave their OK for two improvements at Memorial Hall.

The Commission gave Lewis Hill, 702 Mapewood Ave., permission to repair the concrete steps at the main entrance of the building. The total costs are set at $113.40.

A second improvement of the antiquated building is the purchase of 16 storm windows. They are to be purchased from Carl J. Porter at $19 each.

Both moves received a unanimous vote of the commissioners.

"A man should be judged by his hat", advises a fashion writer. May be a good idea, but what if, as is the case with so many in this office, he never wears any? ,

Job Picture Gets Brighter

Gradual Employment Pickup To Continue

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department reported today that a gradual employment pickup begun in March is expected to continue at least to mid-July.

The department's Bureau of Employment Security said its May survey of labor market trends show that employers in about two-thirds of the nation's 150 major industrial centers expect further slight seasonal employment gains into mid-summer.

The May job totals were due to be released in mid-afternoon. A further rise in employment, and decline in unemployment, were expected. Farm employment, kept down by heavy spring rains, is due to show some increase. Unemployment normally drops by over 250,000 from April.

The Employment Security Bureau's report indicated that job recovery is moving along faster than it did after the 1958 recession.

This spring, the bureau said, has seen declining unemployment in practically all major job areas, with the improvement in 10 of them sufficient to warrant promotion to more favorable ratings.

Five such areas have been shifted from the ratings of 6 to 9 per cent of work force unemployed to the 3 to 6 per cent category. One of these is Steubenville-Weirton, Ohio-W. Va.

Two steel centers — Lorain, Elyria and Youngstown-Warren, both in Ohio—moved to the 9 to 12 per cent group from the "worst" category of 12 per cent or more unemployment.

Employers reported that expected further hiring gains over the next two months will come in steel, metal fabricating, and electrical machinery, and the usual summer expansion in food processing.

Youngstown - Warren is among areas which the bureau mentioned as expected to benefit from payroll increases.

Jury Reduces Charge against Circleville Man

A Pickaway County Common Pleas jury Monday reduced a charge of cutting with the intent to kill against Harold Knece of Circleville. The accusation was reduced to assault and battery.

Knece, indicted by the April session of the Grand Jury, was charged with cutting Millard Scott, 345 Barnes Ave., with intent to kill him. Jury members reduced the charges Monday due to lack of witnesses to the incident.

The trial, which began at 9:30 a. m. Monday with the seating of the jury, ended late in the afternoon as the jury returned with its verdict.

Judge Earl D. Parker, Waverly, O., was on the bench. The judge is to return to Pickaway County this week to sentence Knece.

KENNETH Robbins, local attorney, represented Knece in the criminal case.

Prosecuting Attorney Robert Huff acted on behalf of the State.

Jury members were Luther J. List, Elizabeth J. Given, Ben McCain, Ernest Truitt, Harvey East, Mary E. Goodchild, W. I. Gillespie, Glen Rader, Glenn Weiler, Orville E. Kempton, Freda W. Collins and Margaret C. Johnson.

Kennedy Critics Asked To Hush

Dems See Harm on Eve Of Khrush Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders called today for a cooling-off period in Republican political attacks until President Kennedy has talked with Soviet Premier Khrushchev in Vienna.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana urged a truce to suspend at least temporarily the kind of foreign policy blasts at the President with which the GOP kept the political battle reverberating over the weekend.

"This is not the time, with the Khrushchev talks approaching, for anyone to become political or partisan in the foreign policy field," Mansfield said. "Rather it is the time for all Americans to come to the aid and support of their president."

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the assistant Democratic leader, said in a separate interview he recognizes the Republicans' right to criticize foreign policy decisions. But he said he thinks the country would benefit by a little more unity behind the President as he approaches the Vienna meeting.

Republicans gave no sign, however, of any let-up in wide-ranging criticism of Kennedy's foreign and domestic policies in which they engaged over the weekend.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Senate Republican leader, told a Republican meeting Sunday in Chicago that he believes Kennedy could blunder the nation into war with the Soviet Union.

Republican National Chairman Thruston B. Morton told an Albuquerque, N. M., audience that the prestige of the United States had "plummeted to an all-time low."

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon told a news conference in Oklahoma City he thought it was morally wrong and unwise to trade 500 tractors for 1,200 Cuban invasion prisoners.

Dynamite Found Along Darby Creek By Fishermen

Circleville Police today reported the finding of 3 1/2 sticks of dynamite along the banks of Darby Creek.

Officers said the dynamite was found by a son of Earl Martin, Fairview Ave., while fishing at Darby north of Fox. It was discovered yesterday morning.

Martin said the explosives were in a sack. The bundle included a length of fuse, but no caps.

Police Chief Robert Temple said the sticks appeared to be new. He said the dynamite will be turned over to the sheriff's department.

Woman Is Backed For U.S. Judgeship

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Woman's Party announced Wednesday it has asked President Kennedy to appoint Ernestine Breisch Powell of Columbus as U. S. district judge for southern Ohio.

The announcement was made by Mrs. Emma Guffey Miller, national chairman of the party and Democratic national committee woman from Pennsylvania, and Miss Alice Paul, founder of the party.

Mrs. Powell is a former national chairman of the party.

The announcement said Mrs. Powell was an active worker for the election of John Kennedy in the 1960 campaign and in 1952 was chairman of the Franklin County, Ohio, women's division of Citizen's for Eisenhower.

Space Wings Under Study

Retractable Gear
May Aid Moon Trip

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Man may fly to the moon and home again with the aid of retractable wings, a space expert said today.

His moon ship would stick out the wings—weighing no more than parachutes—after it reentered the earth's air, with the pilot then guiding it to a controlled landing.

Going to the moon will tax human ingenuity to the limit, said Robert R. Gilruth, director of the space task group for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Getting the heavy moon ship there and back will be the main goal and there won't be room for extra equipment above that needed to launch, reenter and land again safely, he told the first National Conference on Peaceful Uses of Space.

Trying a conventional winged landing versus parachuting might be solved by a promising idea: a chute system, he suggested.

Gilruth, who selected Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard Jr., to be the first U.S. astronaut, said man himself must play a basic role in the advance exploration and uses of space.

So man has to be tailored into the flight, powered by huge booster rockets now being developed, he said.

One challenge is to devise methods so the man doesn't have to enter the space ship until it is just about ready to go.

This would avoid the hours long wait that Shepard had on the launch pad three weeks ago.

Unlike a ship or airplane, a space craft presents additional challenges—it must be able to operate satisfactorily in space, in the earth's air, and on water.

Manned flight to the moon "is one of the most difficult tasks that could be chosen," Gilruth added, "but plans call for taking progressive steps to reach the goal within this decade."

Five Treated Memorial Day

Five persons were treated and released at Berger Hospital during the Memorial Day holiday.

Victoria Breckler, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Breckler, Route 1, Stoutsville, fell from a metal swing at her home. She received a laceration of her left thigh.

Ronald E. Meadows, 28, Amanda, cut his hand on a piece of tin. He suffered a 1 1/2 - inch laceration.

David Hettinger, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hettinger, Adelphi, while fishing caught the hook of a fish stringer in his leg, lacerating his right thigh.

William Alkire, 19, of 425 N. Court St., injured his lower back on some wooden bars at the trampoline center at Ted Lewis Park.

It took 14 men to subdue an ailing gorilla in a Kenya zoo. The wonder is, where did they find so many recklessly brave people?

Lawmen Speak In Columbus

City Police Chief Robert Temple and Pickaway County Probation Officer Ralph Starkey explained the local juvenile probation program to members of the West Jefferson and Linden Kiwanis clubs at meetings Monday in Columbus.

The two law officers, speaking at West Jefferson at noon and to the Linden group Monday night, described efforts being made in this area to "correct and prevent" the youth crime ratio's rise.

Appearing in conjunction with a renewed Kiwanis effort to give assistance to underprivileged children, Temple and Starkey related incidents they have encountered in their professional capacities.

They noted the need for guidance by law enforcement personnel in dealing with youth.

THE TWO are scheduled for a June 8 speaking engagement at the Dublin Kiwanis Club.

Temple will be the featured speaker at a June 13 meeting of the Duval 4-H group.

Women Become More Prominent

He may do it grudgingly but mere man has to admit that woman are becoming more and more prominent in every field of human endeavor. Women have left their kitchens to engage in all lines of business and employment until they constitute more than one-third of the working force in the U. S.

Name any line of business, any profession, and women will be found there, many holding positions of importance and leadership. Today there are literally hundreds of thousands in each of these occupations: Teachers, secretaries, saleswomen, clerks, bookkeepers, cashiers and professional nurses.

They are to be found in scientific fields, in radio and television, advertising, geology, in journalism, in the law, and in practically every profession. Should they invade politics as a class, they would outnumber men in the nation by more than a million votes.

Because they live longer than men, women are gradually inheriting the wealth of the country and now control a greater part of it through ownership.

Women are healthier, have better judgment which often passes for intuition, drinkless, are more industrious. Shakespeare said:

"Women are the books, the arts, the academies, that show, contain and nourish all the world."

With a line like that, he would have progressed far in a world of women.

Dialogue under the Headstones

By Hal Boyle

The time was yesterday — Memorial Day. The scene was any cemetery in America.

The dialogue under the headstones: George, vintage '18: Well, here it is another Memorial Day. Wonder who'll come?

Jim, vintage '17: Who cares? Clem, vintage '64: Not me. I'm not expecting visitors.

Charley, vintage '63: Me neither. It's been a long, long, long time for both of us. But restful.

Joe, vintage '43: I'd like to see my folks again.

Frank, vintage '50: I never had no folks—unless you can call an orphan home Daddy. But Edith, my girl, she said she'd never forget. But she had only come here once to see me.

Jim: I had folks once a long time ago, but I ran away young, and I wasn't the kind of kid they'd exactly want to remember.

(An elderly woman came and knelt above George, prayed a few moments, then walked away, her head down.)

George: Stella! When I kissed her goodbye she said if I didn't come back she'd never marry again. That was what—38 years ago. She looks so old and tired and lonely. Does she really think that's the way I wanted it? If I could only have left her a son.

(Four people An elderly couple and a young couple, came to Joe's headstone, decked it with flowers, and spoke of him lovingly as they sat down on the grass and opened a picnic lunch.)

Joe: Mom! Dad! And my kid brother! How big he is! The girl with him must be his wife. Imagine Harry being married. How fast things change—up there.

(A Delegation from the Sons of the Confederacy arrived, planted a waving flag (the Stars and Bars), by Clem's grave, listened to a brief speech then departed.)

Charley: I don't know what happened to the Sons of the Grand Army of the Republic this year, Johnny Reb, but your side remembered you.

Clem: Why shouldn't they, Yankee? Who do you think won the war? But it was a mighty terrible, short speech.

George, musingly: Wars and speeches Speeches and wars I wonder if we all had it to do over again, whether we'd—

Jim, testily: Had what to do over again? All I did was to get kicked by a mule in a training camp in Missouri. All my buddies thought it was funny, until I knelt over I never even had a change to laugh.

George: I was crawling through some barbed wire near Chateau-Thierry when a Hun sniper—

Clem: I was crying for water in a Yankee prison I had the fever bad. And suddenly I was taken with a coughing fit and—

Charley: I was thirsty, too, Reb on that third day at Gettysburg when I lifted my head, and a bullet came and—

Joe: I wanted wings, and I was guiding a bomber over Germany when we ran into a flak burst, and—well I won my second pair.

Frank: I was in the Marines, just turned 20, when we landed in Korea. Didn't even have time to have anybody. Five minutes after we started up the first hill, a mortar hit at my feet. Aw, who cares now? Where's Edith? She was only 18 when she promised she'd always—couldn't she come just this once?

Charley: Never mind, son. You'll get used to it. Anyway, maybe she misses you in ways you don't even know.

Frank: But Edith was the only girl I really ever knew, the only one I ever had a chance to know. (The family group above Joe rose to go. His mother, the last to rise, suddenly knelt down again, put her lips to his name in the stone, and burst into tears.)

Joe: Mama! Mama! (The cemetery guard closed the gates behind the last departing visitor Memorial Day was over. A meadowlark, hidden in the grass, sang a requiem to a silent camp.)

Dear Doctor: Bluish pigment is showing through the whites of my eyes. Will this hurt my vision? I'm 72.

Mrs. G. S.

Dear Mrs. S.: Like most issues, the whites of the eyes thin out after many years. More and more the bluish internal coat shows through. This shouldn't interfere with your vision.

If you want to look out for your eyes, let your doctor look into them at least once a year!

Dear Doctor: Are jaundice and hepatitis the same. Is hepatitis contagious?

Mr. G. Z.

Dear Mr. Z.: Janundice refers to yellow skin caused by a buildup of certain chemicals that normally pour through the liver.

Hepatitis is a virus infection of the liver — a very contagious virus infection — that often swells the liver to dam back chemicals to cause (yellow) jaundice.

Dear Doctor: I'm beginning the change of life. Can I still have babies?

Mrs. G. B.

Dear Mrs. B.: Figures from a recent medical journal show that in New York City three women between 40 and 44 give birth for every one killed in an accident. From 45 to 49 babies are as common as triplets in the general population. And, over 50, chances for a baby are still greater than any woman's chance for quadruplets.

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP)—Recreation spending time is here—and leisure industry leaders are assuring each other that this summer is bound to be better than last.

They hope the weather will take a turn for the better. So far sales of outdoor recreational equipment and toys have been spotty, lagging in many sections where spring has been all but a delusion, but ahead in areas where the weather has been cooperative.

Last summer bad weather hurt the leisure industry. Just as bad perhaps was the recession which caused many families to trim their fun budgets. Sales of several types of equipment fell well behind early expectations.

This year the surveys of goods and services for recreation are counting on renewed public confidence in the economy and on longer vacations and higher disposable incomes to push recreation spending to a new high. Some put this year's total for all kinds of recreation at $44 billion.

Two segments of the leisure market expected to show gains this year are equipment needed for outdoor activities aimed at family fun and physical fitness, and cultural pursuits that have commanded more of the spending of many families in recent years.

A third market aimed primarily at the younger members of the family is being pushed by toy manufacturers and retailers. Most outdoor toys are sold in the early part of June, and many manufacturers are stepping up promotion of this year's sales.

Looking farther ahead, the toy manufacturers of the USA Inc, plans to start a spring and summer toy market week in October to spur sales of outdoor items in the summer of 1962. These range from beach pails to wading pools.

Sales prospects for equipment aimed at the whole family or older segments have been revised recently by the economics department of C.I.T. Financial Corp. Its interest is in providing installment financing for many of the larger items, ranging from boats, trailers, vacation cottages and private aircraft to golf carts, backyard swimming pools and bowling alley pinsetters. The survey foresees sizable gains this year.

Bogus Game Protectors Get Warning

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio departments of natural resources and health are trying to make the going rough for people who pose as game protectors or health officers.

The Natural Resources Department has urged sportsmen to be on guard against fake game protectors, and has given this guide to identify a true officer:

Official game protectors almost always are in uniform, and always carry a card bearing their name, photograph, description and signature. Sportsmen are urged to demand to see the card if approached by anyone identifying himself as a game protector.

As for persons impersonating health officers, the Health Department is backing a bill providing fines of $25-$100 and 30 days to six months in jail for posing as a city, county, state or federal health officer. The Ohio House of Representatives has approved the measure, and the Senate is studying it.

Nike-Zeus Radar Units OK on Fast Track Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — Target-tracking radar for the Nike-Zeus antimissile system has been tested successfully against a fast traveling intercontinental ballistic missile, the Defense Department announced today. Army officials said the test was made last Saturday.

The radar equipment, on Ascension Island in the South Atlantic, tracked an Atlas missile fired from Cape Canaveral, Fla. Ascension is about 4,500 miles from Canaveral, midway between South America and Africa.

SCHOOL'S (BURNED) OUT—On the last day of school before summer vacation in Oslo, Minn., students of the Oslo School watched a $250,000 fire ruin the older section of the structure. Firemen from three communities and farmers hauling water from the Red River fought the blaze for three hours.

You're Telling Me!

By WILLIAM RITT
Central Press Writer

If the U. S. Treasury puts into effect that proposal to have American currency printed in different colors, a financially solvent fellow will not only be in the pink, but in the black, green, orange, yellow, purple, etc., as well!

A guy in the bucks will not only have, as the song has it, "a rainbow 'round his shoulder," but in his wallet, as well.

Come to think of it, could there be any better sight for sore eyes than a stack of highly colorful cash?

Different hues for different multi-dollar denominations along with the phone company's gradual switch to all-numeral phone numbers, says F.E.F., could make memory courses a must.

These early June breezes, declares the man at the next desk, can turn any wide-brimmed chapau into an off-the-face hat.

An archeologist has uncovered a very ancient stone tub. Probably left over from some prehistoric spring house cleaning.

A London pub has concocted two "Space Age cocktails" — an "Astro-naut", bourbon-based, and a "Cosmonaut", with a vodka base. Either one, we understand, is guaranteed to get you high.

Frances Fox, Gary Hovatter Married in Laurelville

Miss Frances Fox and Mr. Gary Hovatter exchanged marriage vows at the Laurelville EUB Church at 7:30 p. m. May 20.

The Rev. Wayne Fowler officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Gwen Fowler presented pre-nuptial music at the organ and sang "I Love You Truly".

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Richard Fox of Circleville. Mrs. Richard Fox was matron of honor. Ronald Hovatter of Columbus served as best man for his brother.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nell Fox, Laurelville, and Eldon Fox, also of Laurelville. Mr. Hovatter's parents are Mrs. Mildred Follen, Laurelville and Clyde Hovatter of Columbus.

Following the informal ceremony a reception was held at the Laurelville Diner which is operated by the groom's mother. The table was centered by a five-tiered wedding cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Ronald Hovatter.

The new Mrs. Hovatter is a graduate of Laurelville High school and is employed as an IBM operator for Beacon Mutual Insurance Co., Columbus.

Mr. Hovatter is employed at DuPont.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

A Fool and Her Money

DEAR ABBY: I was widowed four years ago, and up until recently I never accepted any dates because I was too broken up. I realized I couldn't continue to live with a memory, and my children needed a father, so I started dating.

I met a very attractive man who is new in town. He appears to be a perfect gentleman, but no one knows much about him. He seems to be a man of means. I forgot to mention that I am fairly well off. My insurance company just settled an old accident claim, and I was awarded $28,000, and this was in the papers. (I put it in trust for my children's education.)

This man told me if I married him I wouldn't have to worry about money. What does this mean? I can't ask him how much money he has, can I? I am not a gold-digger, but I don't want to marry a man I have to support. How can I find out his financial status?

CAREFUL WIDOW
DEAR CAREFUL: If he is on the up and up, he will not resent your asking him to meet with your lawyer (and banker) and reveal his financial status. If he balks, lose him fast. A woman is a fool to marry a man who won't hold still for questioning.

DEAR ABBY: Next Friday we have posture tests and we have to strip down to our underwear for a male doctor we don't even know. Do you think this is right?

BASHFUL
DEAR BASHFUL: There is nothing wrong with it. Doctors are trained to be impersonal, and there is no need to be embarrassed.

DEAR ABBY: Could you or a reader satisfy my curiosity? There are two birds nesting in an umbrella tree where a woodpecker used to make his home through the winter. These birds are different from any I have ever seen. They are bigger than blackbirds. Their plumage is so black it shines like patent leather. They have yellow beaks, and make a whistling sound that causes women to turn around. The whistle sounds like a "wolf" whistle. (You know what I mean.... "Wheeee — Wheeee — Wheeee") I am not a bird watcher, but I would like to know what kind of birds they are.

MRS. V.
DEAR MRS. V: Tell me what part of the country you live in, and I will tell you what kind of birds they are. I am not a bird watcher either, but some of my best friends are.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "LOOK-ING FOR THE RIGHT ONE":
Look for the fellow (or girl) who has not the best face or figure, the nicest car, or the smoothest line of patter. Look for purity of speech, kindness of heart, sweetness of disposition, and a willingness to work hard. In the meantime, set about to make yourself the same kind of person as you are looking for. And you will find that person.

Yes, Abby will answer your letter personally if you write to ABBY, Box 3363, Beverly Hills, Calif., and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Chapter 90 Stages Meeting

Circleville Chapter 90, Order of the Eastern Star, recently held a regular meeting in the Masonic Temple. The business meeting was in charge of the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Elizabeth Dunkel.

Past Matrons and Past Patrons honored were Mrs. Muriel Reichelderfer, Mrs. Gladys Shepler, Miss Martha Warner, Mrs. Daisy Accord, Mrs. Mildred Kuhn, Mrs. Kathryn Reber, Mrs. Garnet Reichelderfer, Mrs. Helen Bowling, Mrs. Kenneth Shepler and Mrs. Walden Reichelderfer.

Special tribute was given to Mrs. Helen Bowling who served as Grand Martha of the Grand Chapter of Ohio during 1948 and Mrs. Kathryn Reber who was District Deputy in 1952. These were both grand appointments. Mrs. Garnet Reichelderfer, district treasurer, was also recognized.

Initiatory work was held by the officers. A tribute was paid to all present and past Star Points present. The worthy matron announced that a Country Folk Dance Night will be observed by the Chapter later this summer.

The next meeting of the Chapter will be an Annual Inspection, to be conducted by Mrs. Lois Henricks, district deputy, on June 13. There will be a dinner at the Pickaway Arms at 6 p. m. before the meeting. All reservations are to be made with Mrs. Emma Curlett, secretary, no later than June 10.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, members and guests adjourned to the dining room for refreshments served by Mrs. Jane Plum and her committee.

Personals

Mrs. Anna Heeter was guest of honor on her 83rd birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Heeter. Other guests were sons Clarence of Columbus and William Heeter and daughter, Mrs. Jack Morgan, Circleville.

If you like mocha flavor, whip heavy cream with a tablespoon of instant coffee powder and confectioners' sugar to taste (about 1-3 cup). Fill and frost a small chocolate layer cake with the cream.

WHAT JACKIE WILL WEAR IN PARIS—Shown here are sketches of part of the wardrobe that Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy will take with her during her visit to France where President Kennedy will have talks with French President Charles de Gaulle. At left is gown she will wear to dinner at the Chateau de Marseilles. It is of pink and white straw lace with scalloped detail at edge of bateau neckline and hem. At right is the gown for the De Gaulle dinner at the Elysee Palace. It is one shouldered and has white organza over yellow organza with jeweled embroidery at hem. In center is a lightweight wool coat with self-buttons and bow at waist and a blouse effect at top, plus slightly flared skirt. The designer was Oleg Cassini.

U.S. Reporter Is Authority
On Life in Castro's Prison

EDITOR'S NOTE — AP correspondent Robert Berrellez during two years in Cuba became a sort of authority on Fidel Castro's most famous prison, La Cabana. He wound up there as a prisoner, but finally was released to return to the United States. Here is his description of this prison whose name strikes terror in many Cuban hearts.

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
NEW YORK (AP)—A popular Spanish dish is paella—a concoction of rice, chicken, seafood, peppers and other things that defies the martini in the number of ways it can be made.

In Havana's La Cabana Prison, the inmates—I among them—jokingly referred to the diet of rice and black beans as paella a La Cabana. This, however, was a sort of long-playing paella that went on for every one of the miserable 25 days of my detention.

Once in a while, a shred of beef or ham somehow would find its way into the mixture.

The food was the most palatable of the conditions at the ancient fortress prison. Filth, dampness, cold and forbiddingly grim surroundings were the lot of the 1,800 in Cabana with me.

I know La Cabana well. My first assignment after reaching Havana in mid-January 1959 was to go to the prison to interview Maj. Jesus Sosa Blanco, accused by Fidel Castro of more than 100 murders. He was executed the same month.

Unconfirmed reports of another "mystery" sub in South American waters reminds us — isn't it about time for the Loch Ness sea serpent to put in its seasonal non-appearance?

I went there many times thereafter to interview other so-called war criminals and had no difficulties coming and going. There was no suggestion then that my career as a correspondent in Havana was to end with detention in the same prison.

The original fortress is surrounded by deep, dry, grassy moats. Traffic feeds over narrow bridges, some covered.

The prison itself is a tiny triangular space in one corner of the original fort. Deep vaults apparently used by the Spanish military to store food and wine were converted into prison cells much later.

The vaults run under nearly six feet of porous concrete. I was told this was intended to let rain water seep through the walls slowly. The ever present breeze from the ocean about a mile away combines with the damp walls to create a primitive air conditioning. The prison is cool in the steamy tropical daytime heat, and intensely cold at night.

Vaulted cells are built into an L-shaped wall that forms two sides of the triangle. One unnumbered cell is a well equipped barber shop. Next to cell No. 22 is the first steel-barred gate. Just beyond another cell is the prison administrative office. Next to it, and nearest the heavily guarded main gate, is death row.

From the back end of the cells, and through a double set of bars, we could peer into the grassy moats.

One part of the moats, not visible from the cells, is used for executions. There was no firing squad activity during my stay there. I was told, however, the shots and screams could be heard clearly in the cells.

SLEPT THROUGH TRAGEDY — A servant takes away "Mimi," a pet poodle that slept through one of the New Jersey area's most revolting crimes. Her owner, Mrs. Elliott C. Ewell, of Westfield, N.J., and Mrs. Robert Tyson, 50, of Plainview, were abducted from the family car, when it broke down on a lonely road, and later raped and slain. Two car washers were being charged with the slaying of the women.

Peace Corps Training
To Start Next Month

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first volunteers to be picked for overseas service in the Peace Corps will be training next month, a spokesman said today.

They will be selected from among some 3,400 candidates who showed up Saturday for a 5½-hour written examination given in 340 test centers across the nation, said Edwin R. Bayley, Peace Corps public relations director.

THEY ARE TO MEET, TOO—While their husbands are sizing each other up at the President Kennedy-Soviet Premier Khrushchev "big two" conference in Vienna, the grandmotherly wife of Khrushchev, Madame Nina Petrovna Khrushchev, and America's youthful First Lady, Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, also will meet. The two women are expected to like each other and have much in common despite the difference in their ages.

2 New Stars Fill Vacancies in Ranks of 'Golden Dozen'

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The golden dozen has lost two of its members, but two new stars have come up to keep it a glittering twelve. Three years ago, this writer pointed out that there was a round dozen of film stars who virtually ruled the film industry by their ability to write their own ticket deals. They were: Marlon Brando, Gary Cooper, Tony Curtis, Kirk Douglas, Clark Gable, Cary Grant, William Holden, Burt Lancaster, Gregory Peck, Frank Sinatra, James Stewart and John Wayne.

Today, Gable and Cooper are gone. Though their box-office draw was off from their prime years, both were drawing top money when they died. Gable was paid $750,000 for "The Misfits," plus $48,000 weekly overtime for three weeks. Cooper did "The Naked Edge" for $275,000 plus half the profits.

Neither Gable nor Cooper will ever be replaced. But the tides of film fortunes have provided two new members to again make it the golden dozen. They are: Jack Lemmon and Rock Hudson.

Hudson would have made it to the top ranks sooner, except for his restricting contract with Universal; now he is more able to cash in on his vast popularity. Lemmon, long Hollywood's most underrated actor, established himself with "Some Like It Hot" and "The Apartment."

The industry situation has not changed with regard to the golden dozen. I pointed out in 1958 that the 12 men were the real rulers of Hollywood, since they were the only names on which producers felt they could rely. If anything, the dozen stars hold even more power today.

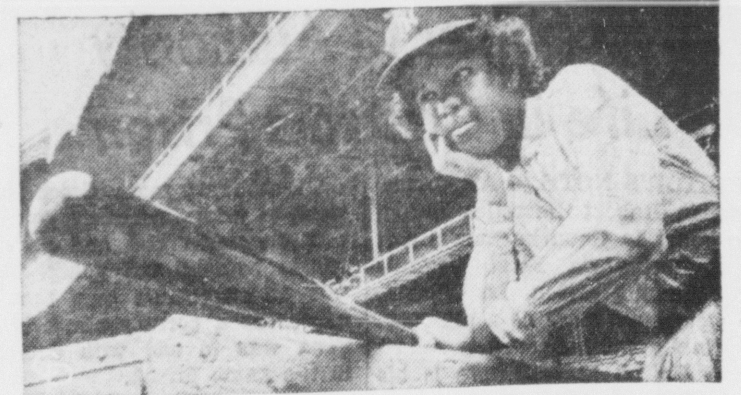

No one begrudges the stars earning their worth, which is considerable. But many observers see the growing danger of relying on a tight group of stars, some of them mature men with declining draw. The need for new stars is greater than ever, but little is being done about it.

AEC Plans Price Cut On Nuclear Materials

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission today announced it will charge less for selling uranium to foreign governments and leasing it to commercial users in this country.

The AEC said also it is studying the desirability of lifting the ban on the sale of special nuclear materials to private organizations in the United States.

BAT-HER UP!—Winner of a contest with an essay on "Why I Want to Be Bat Boy for a Day for the Yankees," Theo Cornelius, 14, of Port Chester, N.Y., lost her chance when contest judges discovered Theo was a girl. She did receive a Mickey Mantle bat and cap, however, which saved the day.

Cincinnati Involved In 4-Death Auto Crash

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (AP) — A Cincinnati man's car veered off Ind. 38 near here, swerved back across to the opposite lane, collided with an oncoming auto—and four people died.

The victims Tuesday night were Burt Michaelson, 48, of Cincinnati, driver of the one car; Robert E. Crull, 34, of Union City, Ind., driver of the other auto; his mother, Mrs. Zona R. Crull, 58, of Pendleton, Ind., and her mother, Mrs. May M. Schlegel, 88, of Pendleton.

Verbal Slugfest Possible in Vienna

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

Associated Press News Analyst
PARIS (AP) — President Kennedy's Vienna meeting with Premier Khrushchev can develop into a free-swinging verbal slugfest that would leave each leader with few illusions about the other.

Advance pronouncements from Moscow indicate Khrushchev will tell the President the United States has no choice but to accept rising Communist world power as a reality and adapt itself to that as a fact of life—that the Communists will neither retreat nor halt in their drive for world supremacy.

For his part, President Kenedy indicated on his recent visit to Canada he is in a mood for straight talk, unvarnished by diplomatic niceties. He is apt to pull no punches while telling Khrushchev what the United States is prepared to do — beef up conventional forces, activate a NATO nuclear striking force and take whatever other measures may be necessary to head off further Communist conquests.

In advance, Moscow is putting out the line that the confrontation may be expected to bring "good results." That is how a headline put it in Izvestia, the Soviet government newspaper. Pravda, the Communist party paper, also is building up expectations for the meeting. That is nothing new. Soviet propaganda did likewise last year before Khrushchev exploded a summit meeting with a barrage of insults for President Eisenhower.

More significant is an article in Kommunist, the central Soviet theoretical journal. It repeats what Moscow has said for eight years: Stubborn problems can be solved by discussion. But then it adds what may be the central theme of Khrushchev's argument in his talk with Kennedy.

The success of discussions, says Kommunist, depends upon "the ruling circles of the imperialist powers, and first of all the United States of America, turning away from reactionary illusions and understanding the real relationship of forces in the world today."

That seems to be it, in a nutshell. It implies that what Kommunist calls "the solidarity of Socialist proletarian internationalism" is an unalterable fact which faces the West with an enormous, monolithic power bloc. The leaders of this bloc, because of rising Soviet economic, political and military power, have no intention of backing up or even slowing down in their drive to spread communism.

Lima Hunter Suffers Heart Seizure in Canada

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. (AP)—A Lima, Ohio, man was evacuated from nearby St. Joseph Island, Ont., by a US Air Force helicopter Tuesday. He is Edward Haumesser, 59, who suffered a heart attack while hunting on the island. He was reported in fair condition at War Memorial Hospital here.

Dr. Paul Zahl of the National Geographic Society says there are some 450 species of carnivorous plants in the world which utilize some kind of equipment to attract, capture and digest small forms of animal life.

Kiwanis Urges Mower Safety

Local Club Lists Rules To Follow

Power mowers, vital pieces of equipment these days, have come under some careful consideration by the Circleville Kiwanis Club.

Kiwanians, aware that power mowers are dangerous unless handled correctly, have come up with a list of safety rules they urge one and all to follow.

Several mower accidents have been reported here already this spring, most of them requiring hospital attention.

Here are the rules compiled by the local club:

1. Study the instruction manual which came with the mower. This booklet gives basic information on safety and maintenance.

2. Inspect the lawn for stones, wire and other debris before you start to mow. The blade can pick up such objects and throw them with enough force to kill. It is important to keep all persons away from the opening where grass is ejected.

3. Train all operators before letting them use or even start the mower. The operator should stand firm and be sure the mower will not move over his foot as the starter rope is pulled. Be sure engine is cold and shut off when filling gasoline tank.

4. Always be sure of your footing especially when mowing inclines. It is very easy to pull the mower back over your foot unless you are aware of the danger and keep your mind on job at hand.

5. Stop the mower whenever the operator is called away or leaves the job temporarily. An unattended running mower plus a small child sometimes equals disaster.

6. Keep all small children and pets away from the machine. They could stumble or fall into the mower path or into the mower itself and become casualties.

7. Always stop the engine when you are unloading, adjusting, or oiling the mower. As an added precaution be sure to disconnect the spark plug wire while you are working on bottom of mower. Never reach under the guard. Keep your hands, feet and clothing away from all moving parts.

8. Keep gasoline stored in a plainly marked red can. This container should be spill-proof in case it is bumped or upset. Storing gasoline in a glass jar is asking for a fire.

POLICE DOGS ON DUTY IN SOUTH—A member of the new K-Nine Corps, this police dog is shown in one of the special motorcycle cars now being used by the New Orleans police to help maintain order. The dogs can be quickly moved to scenes of trouble where crowds threaten to become unruly. Some K-Nines were recently used with success in Jackson, Miss.

Wisdom Teeth May Be On Way Out

Q. Why are wisdom teeth so named and why do they give so much trouble?

A. They are so named because they come through late and at an age when we should have acquired some wisdom. Wisdom teeth are usually of poor quality. They decay easily and are often so lifeless that they fail to erupt, becoming impacted. The consistent production of substandard merchandise may be Nature's way of eliminating wisdom teeth. She has had some experience along these lines. Early man had four molars (erecting teeth). As the jaw shortened, one molar was lost so that modern man has only three (first, second and "wisdom"). Perhaps Nature has decided to eliminate the wisdom tooth by the simple process of neglect. But don't expect immediate results. It took 500,000 years for man to discard the fourth molar!

Built-In Protection
Q. Why do fewer women than men have heart attacks?

A. One theory is that younger women have built-in protection in the form of estrogen (female sex hormone) which seems to delay hardening of the heart arteries. As the supply of hormone lessens in later life, female susceptibility to heart attacks increases to about that of men.

Before Birth Breathing
Q. Does the unborn child breathe?

A. No, not if you mean taking air into the lungs. The unborn child has no need to breathe because oxygen is obtained from the mother. However, as birth approaches the unborn child shows various kinds of activity, including respiratory (breathing) movements. Although some fluid is probably inhaled at this time, it is largely forced out of the lungs as the child passes through the birth canal. The remaining fluid is normally not sufficient in amount to prevent filling of the lungs with air when the first breath is taken.

Ashville News Report

By Mrs. Arthur Deal Jr.
Phone YU 3-4117

Recognition Night and dedication of the remodeled church basement was observed May 24 at the Ashville Methodist Church with a carry-in dinner being served at 6:30 p. m.

Nosegay corsages were presented each lady guest of honor and the men guests were presented boutonnières. Spring flowers and candles decorated the tables.

The Rev. William Carter thanked everyone for the support and help given him this first year in the church. He recognized C. E. Mahaffey for the many years he has served as chairman of the Commission on Education and as a Sunday School teacher. Mahaffey in turn thanked the staff of teachers in the Sunday School and introduced each one, along with Lowell Ridenour, superintendent of the Sunday School and Dudley Rader, assistant superintendent. The Commission and teachers presented Mahaffey with a gift.

Recognition was also paid to the Senior and Junior choirs. Mrs. Tom Purcell responded for the Senior Choir and Mrs. Art Deal Jr. for the Junior Choir. They introduced their choir members and Mrs. Deal presented each Junior Choir member with a choir pin.

THE ACOLYTES. Jim Deal, John Purcell, Jay Bastian, Rex Gregg and Monty Sunderland were presented acolyte pins by Rev. Carter for their faithful service in assisting with the morning worship services.

Special recognition was made to John Sabine, custodian of the church and Arthur Swingle, who just completed ten years as church treasurer. Each was presented with a gift.

The Rev. Virgil Close, former minister of the church, was present to lead in the dedication of the church basement, which was started in 1958, while he was pastor of the church. The congregation observed the burning of the note.

Following these services in the basement the group retired to the sanctuary where a closing meditation and baptismal service for Douglas Allen Carter, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Carter, was performed by the Dr. Melvin Wentz, pastor of The First Methodist Church of Nelsonville.

The annual Eighth Grade Commencement of the Ashville School was held Monday morning in the school auditorium. The Processional, "Pomp and Circumstance" was played by duo-pianists, Nancy Featheringham and Everett Mehrlay, while the students took their place on the stage. The Invocation was given by Leland Johnson.

The musical program was as follows: Piano solo, "Gypsy Rondo", by Karen Sue Dum; Soprano solo, "You'll Never Walk Alone" by Laura May Norris; Piano duet, "Comrades in Arms" by Marilyn and Martin Younkin; Vocal quartette, "Jacob's Ladder", by Marcia Cook, Rebecca Leatherwood, Patricia Roby, and Patricia Welsh; Piano solo, "Scar's Dance" by Gloria Harrell; Saxophone duet, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" by Patricia Roby and Rickie Ford; Trombone Trio, "America, the Beautiful" by Martin Younkin, Garry Lester, and Douglas Mallory; Woodwind ensemble, "Smiles", by Carolyn Noggle, Marcia Cook, Rebecca Leatherwood, Candy Miller, Carol Gutheil, Karen Sue Dum, Mary Etta Devors, Caron Kitchen, William Younkin, Marilyn Younkin, and Dianne Custer, and ending with the class singing "Do-re-mi" and "I Hear America Singing".

The presentations of certificates and awards were made by Edwin Irwin, principal of the Ashville Elementary School. The Benediction was given by Mr. Johnson.

Irwin and Johnson are the eighth grade instructors. The following students received diplomas: Richard Cario, Mitchell Clay, Marcia Cook, Rickie Craycraft, Dianne Custer, Dale Davis, Mary Etta Devors, Loretta Donaldson, Mary Donaldson, Karen Dum, Herbert Dyke, Linda Fares, Richard Ford, Madelyn Forquer, William Forner, Lester Griffith, Carol Guthell, Bonnie Harper, Gloria Harrell, Doris Harris, Shirley Harris, Silas Henson, Jr., Harold Horsley, Sue Ann Jamison, Connie Kennedy, Ralph Kennedy, Caron Kitchen, Kenneth Kuhlwein, Rebecca Leatherwood, Gary Lester, Clarence Little, William Lucas, Douglas Mallory, Paula McDaniel, Sandra McGlone, Candy Miller, Joyce Miller, Sheila Miller, Norman Noggle, Laura Norris, Linda Ogan, Gary Pennington, Glenda Reinhold, Ivy Riggs, Patricia Roby, David Roese, Michael Roof, Steven Ross, Thomas Sampson, John Shreve, Charles Smith, Donald Smith, Michael Smith, William South, Jr., Terry Trimble, James Tussing, Lucy Vause, James Wells, Patricia Welsh, Terry Wilkins, Danny Wood-en, Thomas Wiley, Marilyn and Martin Younkin, and William Younkin.

MR. AND MRS. Lewis Cummins celebrated their 44 wedding anniversary Wednesday, May 31.

Sunday at 7 p. m. the First English Lutheran Church will hold a reception for all of the adults and children who have become members recently of the church by confirmation or transfer. All members of the church are asked to be present and get better acquainted with the new church members. Refreshments will be served by the Ruth Circle of the church.

Vacation Bible School will get under way the week of June 5 with the Ashville Methodist Church and the Hedges Chapel Methodist Church holding morning sessions and the Evangelical United Brethren Church holding evening sessions starting at 6 p. m.

Hedges Chapel will only hold the school one week but the other two churches will offer a two weeks course.

Church is making plans to hold its school in August.

Bernice Messick, Vandelle White and Maxine Younkin enjoyed the weekend of May 18-21 attending the annual Tulip Festival in Holland, Mich.

The Ashville Women's Civic Club will hold its annual June dinner meeting and installation of officers Thursday evening at Shade's Restaurant in Canal Winchester. Games and contests will be enjoyed later in the games room at Shades.

Installation services for both church and WSCS officers will be Sunday morning in both the Hedges Chapel and Ashville Methodist Churches during the regular worship hours. The Rev. William Carter will install the officers.

COL. LARRY Sunderland and son, Monty Joe, were received into the Ashville Methodist Church Sunday as new members. His daughter, Sandy, transferred her membership to the church.

Joe Dean, Route 1, Ashville, suffered shoulder and leg injuries Saturday morning when he fell seven feet on his head from a scaffold while working in Columbus. He received emergency treatment at University Hospital and was returned to his home.

Charles Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Moore, Ashville, received severe injuries to his leg Sunday evening when it was crushed from a door on a coal car in the railroad yard where he was playing. He was rushed to Mercy hospital.

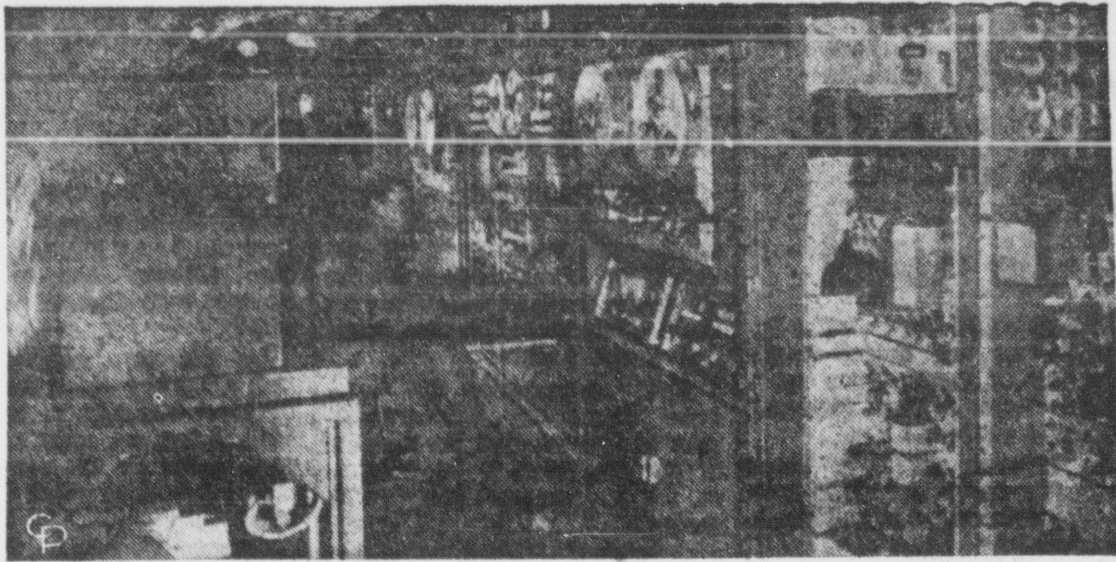

Charles was a student in the third grade at Ashville and a member of the Ashville Cub Scout Pack.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Art Deal

Jr., Jim, Jody and Jan for a carry-in dinner Memorial Day were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bastian, Jay, Dean and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Tosca, Gary and Sally and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bisker, Sher-yl, Linda and Jeff.

The Bastian Funeral Home made the following ambulance runs the past week: Thursday, May 25 took Mrs. Charles O'Day to Mercy Hospital and Henry Crabtree of Obetz to Mercy; Friday, May 26 took Jacqueline Whiteside, RFD, Ashville, to Children's Hospital and Jim Franks to Berger Hospital; and Sunday, May 28 took Charles Moore of Ashville to Mercy Hospital.

Mrs. Bernice Himebaugh and Jacqueline Perich of North Madison were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sark and Liz. They attended the alumni banquet Saturday evening in the Ashville School.

Sunday Blue Laws Ruled To Be Legal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court has upheld constitutionality of Sunday blue laws. Chief Justice Warren delivered the court's decision.

The tribunal ruled in cases specifically applying to blue laws of Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Blue laws, which restrict Sunday activities in many states, originated in colonial America to compel observance of the Sabbath.

Lawyers attacking the statutes said they have become "a lethal weapon in the economic war of competition" among retailers. The lawyers also argued the laws were religious statutes, enforcement of which violated the U. S. Constitution.

The advent of the Sunday supermarket, the super - drug store, and giant discount emporiums in suburbs and along major highways brought vigorous complaints from downtown business interests, along with demands for enforcement of Sunday closing laws.

Some church organizations also sought stricter enforcement of the laws, while some orthodox Jews and Seventh Day Adventists who observe Saturday as the Sabbath opposed what was termed interference in religion.

A brief submitted to the high court by the Synagogue Council of American and the National Community Relations Advisory Council asked that all blue laws be declared unconstitutional. The brief said organizations connected with the two councils had as members an overwhelming majority of Americans affiliated with Jewish organizations.

The Supreme Court upheld Sunday closing laws in decisions in the last century. Those decisions were based on a "day of rest" doctrine which held the laws were essentially civil rather than religious in nature.

In recent years the court has rejected various appeals challenging blue laws. It said no substantial federal question was presented.

Another blue law appeal was by eight employees of a corporation who worked in a branch highway store in Anne Arundel County, Md.

The eight were convicted of illegal Sunday sale of items such as floor wax, looseleaf notebook and toy submarine. Each was fined $5 and the Maryland law was upheld on their appeal to the Maryland Court of Appeals.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy must wrestle with another man's dream in his conversations with President Charles de Gaulle in Paris today. It's De Gaulle's dream of a new, great and grand France.

The enormously dignified—some might say vain—Frenchman is 70 now. And for the rest of his life, even if he lives to 90, it's a dream not likely to be realized.

Although the United States and Russia are the only two great powers now, it's Red China, not France, which is moving up.

Except as De Gaulle sees it, there is no likely spot for France in the top echelon of world powers during the next quarter century. So the two presidents are not apt to settle much. At best they may understand each other more.

At worst De Gaulle may be hardened a little more in both his dreams and his obstinacy. Neither man can walk into the meeting room and lay a bowl of recent triumphs on the table to impress the other.

Fresh in De Gaulle's memory is Kennedy's disaster with the Cuban invasion, the erosion of American power and prestige in Laos, the Russian space flight which made the American space flight look secondary.

Kennedy, in turn, will be facing a man, 26 years his senior, whose own recent troubles may in the end overwhelm him.

De Gaulle barely squeaked through the generals' revolt in Algeria where the possibility of a new, wider and bloodier revolt is still very real. After three years of talking, De Gaulle still has not brought peace there.

Because De Gaulle is 70 and the history of France since World War II has been a history of instability and unpredictability, Kennedy must feel as he talks to the French president:

What will any promises from me to him or from him to me mean if he should disappear from the scene tomorrow? Will new generals take over? Will France even remain a democracy?

It's this very uncertainty and long instability which would make Congress reluctant to let France have American atomic weapons or a say-so on the use of those weapons, both of which De Gaulle would like.

Kennedy therefore can hardly soothe him by promising either. After the war, when America had both an economic and nuclear monopoly, it was convenient for De Gaulle and needy France to accept U. S. help and unquestioned leadership.

Now France is back on her feet and is developing her own nuclear power. American nuclear monopoly, broken by Russia, no longer exists.

Therefore, it is politically realistic for De Gaulle to assert French power and concern about American leadership since the United States no longer can guarantee France against Russian attack.

But De Gaulle puts himself in the position of a prima donna when he demands equal say-so with the United States in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization—NATO—but does not contribute the number of French divisions NATO needs, pulls his Navy out of NATO's Mediterranean fleet, and undermines the United Nations by refusing to contribute France's share of keeping peace in the Congo.

Kennedy cannot afford a split with the Frenchman—for the sake of the NATO alliance and because he needs maximum Western unity when he talks this next weekend with Premier Khrushchev in Vienna.

Nor can France afford to go it alone, with Russia watching her over the rim of Eastern Europe. The Kennedy-De Gaulle talks, therefore, are likely to be polite but not particularly productive.

Gallipolis Attorney

Renamed to State Post

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—John E. Halliday, Gallipolis attorney, today was reappointed to the Wildlife Council for a term ending in February, 1969. He has served on the council since 1947.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle announced the reappointment.

Carpenter Pay Hiked

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati union carpenters will get hourly pay raises totaling 35 cents over the next three years under a new contract agreed to by the carpenters and the Ohio Valley Carpenters District Council. The contract covers 3,400 carpenters.

During the seven months from August 1, 1960, to February 28, 1961, the fees paid attorneys for indigent defendants were in excess of $160,000. During that period, Rhodes said, there were 38 murder or manslaughter cases costing $64,758.48, or an average of $1,704 per case. At the same time, there were 791 other cases involving indigent prisoners in which assigned attorneys were paid $95,281.13, or an average of $120 a case.

Cuyahoga County accounted for $35,077 of the fees paid attorneys for indigent slayers, and $36,625 paid in other cases where a conviction resulted. Rhodes estimates that it will take between $700,000 and $800,000 a year to reimburse the counties for criminal court costs during the next two years. The legislature appropriated $475,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, and $450,000 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1960. However $40,000 of this year's appropriation had to be used to pay last year's court bills, and indications are that this year's bills will be from $250,000 to $300,000 higher than the money available.

By James Marlow

Reimbursed Court Costs Are Increased

Reimbursing counties for court costs in criminal cases will cost the state at least a quarter - million dollars more this year than was provided by the legislature, according to State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

The appropriation for the book-keeping year ending June 30 was used up in March and it was necessary to ask the emergency board to provide $143,961 to reimburse the counties for their March - April bills. Rhodes estimates that it will require from $125,000 to $150,000 more to pay the May - June bills for court costs.

One thing that has increased the state's crime bill was a change in the law enacted two years ago. This broadened the state's obligation to pay criminal costs by including the fees paid attorneys appointed by the court to defend indigent persons.

During the seven months from August 1, 1960, to February 28, 1961, the fees paid attorneys for indigent defendants were in excess of $160,000. During that period, Rhodes said, there were 38 murder or manslaughter cases costing $64,758.48, or an average of $1,704 per case. ## Police Group Names Officers

The Circleville Fraternal Order of Police and Fraternal Order of Police Associates recently conducted a joint meeting and election of officers in the club rooms at city hall.

The FOPA elected L. D. Varbel, president; Otto Guenther, vice president; Robert Wilson, secretary-treasurer; Paul Brobst and Wes Edstrom, trustees.

Officers of the FOP are: Leroy Hawkes, president; Dick Saunders, vice president; and Turney Ross, secretary treasurer.

The FOPA is formed for the purpose of increasing the understanding of the rights, duties and problems of police officers; of fostering public respect for them; bettering the conditions under which they serve society and other services to police officers.

A MEMBERSHIP drive was discussed and members present decided to bring a guest to the next meeting. A program will be presented at each session and refreshments will be served.

State Patrolman Saunders served a spaghetti dinner to all present at the recent meeting.

RAINED IN—This section of Cahokia, Ill., is a virtual lake after three days of rain. An overflowing canal helped to put water a foot or so deep in some of the living rooms.

Graduation Rites Slated by Colleges

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Here are some of the commencement programs of Ohio colleges and universities:

Sunday, June 4
CENTRAL STATE COLLEGE—A baccalaureate service will be held at 10:30 a.m. in Galloway Auditorium. Commencement exercises will be held in William Patrick McPherson Memorial Stadium at 2:30 p.m., with U.S. Rep. Charles C. Diggs, Jr., D-Mich., delivering the graduation address.

OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY—Dr. Ralph Taylor Alton, bishop of the Wisconsin area of the Methodist Church, will speak at the baccalaureate service in Gray Chapel at 10 a.m., and Dr. Chester M. Alter, chancellor of Denver University, will deliver the commencement address during exercises beginning at 6 p.m. in Shelby Stadium.

OHIO NORTHERN UNIVERSITY—The 90th annual commencement will be held at 3 p.m. in Taft Gymnasium, with diplomas being conferred on 256 graduates. The commencement address will be delivered by Dr. Francis H. Horne, president of the University of Rhode Island.

THE COLLEGE OF STEUBENVILLE—Edwin O. Burgham, former president and board chairman of the Weirton Steel Co. of the National Steel Corp., Weirton, W. Va., will deliver the commencement address in afternoon ceremonies.

BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY—Commencement ceremonies at 3 p.m. in the new Memorial Hall will climax commencement weekend June 2-4. Some 651 seniors and 31 graduate students will be awarded degrees. Commencement speaker will be Dr. Donald C. Kleckner, chairman of Bowling Green's department of speech.

Monday, June 5
MARIETTA COLLEGE—President (Dr.) W. Bay Irvine will preside during the 124th graduation exercises. Marietta's commencement celebration begins Friday, June 2, and ends Monday, June 5.
WITTENBERG UNIVERSITY—About 260 seniors are expected to receive baccalaureate degrees, and 27 master of education degrees are to be awarded at commencement exercises, at which Dr. John A. Krout, vice president and provost of Columbia University, will deliver the principal address.

CAPITAL UNIVERSITY—A commencement weekend that includes luncheons, reunions and a banquet will be capped with Monday's commencement program at 10 a.m. in the Alumni Gymnasium. Dr. Novice G. Fawcett, president of Ohio State University, will address the 256-member graduating class, 100th in the Columbia University's history.

Friday, June 9
OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY At commencement exercises at 9 a.m. honorary degrees will be conferred on virologist Dr. Albert B. Sabin, developer of an oral polio vaccine; chairman Glenn T. Seaborg of the Atomic Energy Commission; Harvard professor and author Howard Mumford Jones, newspaper publisher John S. Knight, and Miami of Ohio University President John D. Millett.

Sunday, June 11
HEIDELBERG COLLEGE—Commencement exercises are scheduled for 3:30 p.m. in Seiberling Gymnasium. The Rev. Dr. Gaines M. Cook, executive secretary for the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, Indianapolis, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon.

Monday, June 12
DENISON UNIVERSITY—The 120th annual commencement exercises at 9:30 a.m. in Livingston Gymnasium will climax a four-day graduation celebration beginning June 9. Approximately 250 seniors will receive bachelors degrees, and five honorary degrees will be conferred. Dr. Andrew W. Cordier, executive assistant to the secretary-general of the United Nations, will deliver Monday's commencement address.

THE UNIVERSITY OF AKRON—U.S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, will be one of three men to receive honorary degrees at the 89th annual commencement at 8:15 in Memorial Hall. He will also deliver the commencement address.

OVERLIN COLLEGE—Oberlin's president emeritus and six others will receive honorary degrees at the 128th commencement exercises. Dr. William E. Stevenson, president from 1946 to 1960, will receive the doctor of laws degree.

Youth Baseball Membership Drive Scheduled Saturday

The second annual Circleville Youth Baseball Program, Inc., membership drive will be held Saturday throughout the city trading area and Stoutsville, program officials announced today.

The drive, which will be a door-to-door campaign by Little and Babe Ruth League participants, is being conducted for a three-fold purpose.

Funds derived from the campaign will be used to pay accident insurance for all players, managers, umpires and other program assistants; for the construction of the two new ball fields at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds; and toward the salaries of the two 1961 program directors.

Last year the drive was established to defray the cost of the insurance. This year unanticipated and unfortunate events have forced Program officials to enlarge the drive's coverage.

UNTIL this year, the Circleville Kiwanis Club and the City Board

Tourney Set At Circle D

The first of four consecutive weeks of mixed doubles sweepstakes bowling will get under way at 9 p. m. Sunday at Circle D Lanes. Other matches are slated June 11, 18, and 25.

The month-long tournament is open to all kieglers competing in regular league bowling at the recreation center with teams to consist of one man and one woman.

Larry Dietrich, tournament manager, has announced that a 75 per cent - of - 200 handicap will be in effect throughout the sweepstakes. Averages to be used will be the highest league average of 21 or more games rolled during the 1960-61 season.

A $5 - per - couple entry fee has been established, with $25 top prize to be awarded to the winning couple each Sunday. Excess prize money will be given to the runner-up squad.

THE tournament, first of its kind at Circle D, will be a three-game event across a pair of lanes. Teams may bowl more than once. Entry deadline has been set 24 hours prior to the opening matches.

Bozman and Loy Top Mixed Loop

Bob Loy and Dorothy Bozman headed all bowlers in the latest Mixed Couples League action at Prairie Lanes.

Loy tied with Gale Seymour for top men's individual singles honors with 199 and copped series laurels with 555. Mrs. Bozman took women's singles with 209 and outpointed all other series efforts with 480.

The Bozman - Sparks squad rolled the top team singles mark (653). The Seymour - Leist combo boomed to series high spot with a 1,776 effort.

Evelyn Leist converted the 7-6-10 and 7-5-10 splits. Betty Jacobs clipped off the 5-9-7 split and Ken Good succeeded in dropping the 5-7 setup. All scores were computed without handicap.

Ulysses (Tony) Lupien, former major league first baseman, has been coaching Dartmouth baseball since 1957. He is a Harvard graduate.

of Education have equally shared the cost of the paid program directors.

James I. Smith III, secretary-treasurer of the program, said the Kiwanis Club recently announced withdrawal of all monetary support from the Program except the $75 sponsorship of a team. The School Board has tabled its decision on the directors' salary until its June 6 meeting. Smith will meet with the board at that time to make a final appeal for needed help.

Combined with the necessary two additional ball diamonds and increased insurance costs, the Youth Program is banking heavily on the forthcoming membership campaign, Smith said.

The 1960 drive netted nearly $600. This year's campaign must net at least twice this amount in order to survive, Smith said. "Unless the public, especially the moms and dads of our Little Leaguers, come to our aid, the youth program will limp through this year and in all probability collapse next year," he stated.

Each of the two league's 23 local teams have been assigned an area to canvass. All players are expected to solicit for the one and only time during the season. At no other time are players allowed or used to solicit funds.

This year the Youth Baseball Program has expanded to 23 local teams, plus the Tarlton Merchants in the LL minors and the Bronco Boosters (Ashville) in the Babe Ruth major league.

APPROXIMATELY 500 boys will participate in the program, the only adult organized and supervised summer athletic program in the area. Youths are not asked to contribute money to play.

Smith said all youths are completely outfitted; play baseball on an adult managed baseball team at least twice a week, not counting practices and exhibitions; taken to see a double-header at Jet Stadium, Columbus, free of charge with transportation furnished, and are entirely protected by accident insurance.

The drive will be conducted all day Saturday. In case persons are not at home, there will be a barrel, manned by Little Leaguers, on the corner of Court and Main Sts., where donations may be made and memberships issued.

Smith said any donation will be appreciated. Following the drive, teams will report back to the National Guard Armory 151 E. Franklin St., where refreshments, cookies and baseball films will be waiting. Team collections will be turned in at this time.

The actual membership cards will carry the season schedule of all games in both leagues on all seven diamonds to be utilized. Teams will be designated by numbers, Roman numerals and letters. The cost of printing the cards has been underwritten by the Third National Bank.

Since the re-organization of the summer baseball program in 1959, Youth Baseball officials have managed to underwrite the cost of it from various contributors without making a direct appeal to the public.

"This year this is not possible because of the withdrawal of a major contributor and the possible withdrawal of another," President Roy S. Farmer, 654 E. Mount St., stated. "This is your program, mon and dad, aunt and uncle, grandmother and granddad, just as much as it is ours, so please lend us a financial hand as well as your physical support," he added.

Young Texan Wins 500-Mile Honors

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Texan A. J. Foyt, who sits mightily tall in a race car seat, won't know until tonight's victory dinner how much he won Tuesday by capturing the golden anniversary 500-mile auto race in a record 139.131 miles an hour.

What he does know is that the $100,000 or so almost slipped through his fingers in a ferocious contest race that knocked out 21 of the 33 starting cars. And it wasn't until Tuesday night that he learned he had set a record instead of an almost. This because of a breakdown in the timing.

It was a three-car race in the last stages among Foyt, 26, Houston, Tex.; Eddie Sachs, Center Valley, Pa., and 1959 winner Roger Ward. It finally was decided in the pits.

Foyt made his third and supposedly last pit stop for tires and fuel, but the connection on the pressure fueling system wouldn't work. His crew borrowed a refueling rig from Len Sutton's pit and called Foyt back in for an extra stop.

Meanwhile, Sachs was flying and looked like a sure winner after failing to finish in four previous starts. Then his right rear tire wore ragged and he had to stop for a new one with only three laps—7½ miles—to go.

Foyt passed Sachs as the Pennsylvanian was gunning his car out of the pits. The handsome Texan beat Eddie to the finish line by 8½ seconds. With four pit stops apiece, Sachs spent 82.5ths seconds longer off the track.

Foyt drove the Indianapolis Bowes Special, Sachs the Long Beach, Calif., Dean Special.

A. J. Foyt

Ward, having handling trouble with a new type Watson car, was less than a lap behind in third place. He could sympathize with Sachs because a worn tire forced Ward to surrender the lead to winner Jim Rathmann late in last year's race.

Mechanical trouble sent Rathmann to the sidelines Tuesday after he had led part of the race. Other leaders at various times included 1952 winner Troy Ruttman, who became physically exhausted; rookie Parnelli Jones and second-time starter Jim Hurtubise.

Hurtubise and Jones both suffered facial cuts from small flying objects, and Jones' cut forced him into a four-minute plus pit stop.

Jack Brabham of Australia, the world road racing champion, drove a shrewd, smooth race to ninth place but he never was in contention. His little English Cooper simply didn't have enough oomph on the straightaways.

The race was run without death or serious injury to a driver, in spite of a series of spectacular wrecks on the west main straightaway. A speedway guard, John Masariu, became the old racing plant's 54th fatality, however, when a fire truck backed over him after extinguishing a fire in Eddie Johnson's wrecked car.

Mat Show Set For AHS Gym

A full slate of grunt-and-groan artists will converge on the Ashville High School gymnasium at 8:30 p. m. Friday for a wrestling show sponsored by the Bronco Boosters Club.

In the first match Leon Graham is pitted against Ukrainian mat ace Johnny Demchuck.

The featured attraction will be the second bout, a tag-team affair. Graham and Bill Scholl will battle it out with Demchuck and Tiger Sever.

In the evening's final billing, Jane Conrad will grapple with Mary Reynolds.

All proceeds from the event will be used to finance Booster Club projects for AHS athletes.

The Columbus Jets of the International League represent the No. 1 farm club of the Pittsburgh Pirates and are managed by Larry Shepard.

Fuhrman, Schroeder Capture Tournament Honors at PCC

Shooting the best round reported this year at Pickaway Country Club yesterday, George Fuhrman captured first place in PCC's Flag Tournament. He also tied for top honors in the Stewart Memorial.

Fuhrman posted a 39-34 card for a one - over - par 73 with a three stroke handicap. He had two shots remaining in the Flag competition and recorded his winning shot on the No. 1 hole, about 15 feet to the right of the pin.

Henry Schroeder, who registered a net 70 score on an 18-stroke handicap, took second spot. Schroeder also had a pair of shots remaining at the end of 18 holes.

Charles Smith retained one stroke at the end of 18 holes. He fired a net 71 on a 21-stroke handicap.

BILL HEWTON placed fourth in the tournament. He finished with a new 73 with a 17 handicap. His 18th hole shot rolled within a foot of the cup.

Bob Turner and Tom Eveland shot within 15 feet of the 18th hole to finish in a deadlock for fifth place.

In the 18 - hole Stewart Memorial medal score tournament, Fuhrman and Schroeder tied with net 70's. An 18 - hole playoff is scheduled for a later date.

The next scheduled tournament is a best-ball foursome event June 11. Players, who will be under full handicaps, should complete their own four - man teams. In other golf notes from club Pro Bob Bisciotti:

ALL first - round matches in the nine-and-18 hole divisions of the Ladies Handicap Tournament must be completed by Sunday morning.

Saturday is the deadline for registering to play in the June 17-18 Southeastern Tournament at Fair-Greens Country Club, Jackson.

Booster Group To Meet Thursday

The Circleville Booster Club committee and interested persons working toward improvement of athletic facilities will meet 8 p. m. Thursday in the home of Clark Martin, 352 Cedar Heights Road.

The group is scheduled to discuss plans in getting estimates of various costs for the possible future erection of a new football stadium and allied facilities.

Charles Hart, president of the committee, said the group hopes to establish sound and reasonable objectives in the facilities project before submitting the information to the Circleville Board of Education.

CYPRESS GARDENS, Fla.—“Anyone can learn the elements of water skiing. If you have normal co-ordination you generally can get up on the skis in the first few attempts,” said the enthusiastic Dick Pope Jr. “Then it becomes so easy,” he continued, “the skier begins to look for new worlds to conquer.”

The director of water skiing at this popular resort aptly illustrated these new worlds by pointing out these various “tricks”: slalom, or skiing on one ski, jumping off a platform and finally skimming the water on bare feet.

“However expert you become,” Pope cautioned, “there always is an element of danger present and it is best to learn the proper and safe way from the beginning.” He advised keeping the following safety rules on the boat at all times as a reminder of these dangers:

Be a good swimmer but regardless always wear a life jacket or belt. Make sure the skis are in perfect condition, with no loose wing nuts or runners, slivers or sharp metals. Avoid skiing near solid objects such as docks and other boats. Watch water ahead of you at all times. Always consider others in the water, especially swimmers and fishermen. Run parallel to shore and come in slowly when landing. Have an extra person on the boat to observe the skier. In some states this is a state law. Have motor stopped or in neutral position when picking up a fallen skier. Don't wrap any part of the tow rope around any part of your body. Don't ski in shallow water. Don't ski at night. This also is against many state laws.

Cincinnati Chalks Up Tie For First Place in National

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Cincinnati Reds tied San Francisco for first place in the National League race by sweeping a Memorial Day doubleheader from the Giants 7-6 and 6-4. Los Angeles made it a virtual three-way jam at the top by beating St. Louis 5-3. The Dodgers are just .000 percentage points behind the Reds and Giants.

The Chicago Cubs took two from Pittsburgh, 5-3 and 10-0, and lost place Philadelphia held Milwaukee to a split. The Braves won the opener, 3-1, then lost 11-4.

The Reds and Giants slugged seven home runs in the opener, but it was an unearned run—scoring after third baseman Jim Davenport of the Giants dropped a pop up with two out in the ninth—that handed it to the Reds. The Giants just missed with four runs in the ninth, three on homers by Charlie Hiller, Hobie Landrith and pinch-hitter Willie Mays, who had been rested by Manager Al Dark. Rookie Jim Maloney (2-2) was the winner, and hit one of the Reds' three home runs. Sam Jones (4-4) lost his third in a row as a starter.

The Reds then made it five straight with a sweep of the three-game set by scoring four runs in the third against Juan Marichal (2-2) in the second game. Bob Purkey, making his first relief appearance of the season, saved it for lefty Jim O'Toole (5-4) in the ninth. The Giants now have lost three in a row and six straight at home.

Consecutive doubles by Jim Gilliam and Willie Davis and an error by Card catcher Hal Smith brought the Dodgers from behind with two runs in the seventh against loser Bob Gibson (2-2). Right-hander Stan Williams (4-3) and reliever Larry Sherry held the Cards to three hits, one a homer by Curt Flood. The Cards had two on with one out in the ninth when Sherry saved it by striking out Ken Boyer and getting Stan Musial to line out. It was the third straight success for the Dodgers.

Ron Santo's two-run single won the opener for the Cubs, and right-hander Don Cardwell (4-2) then blanked the champs on seven hits in the nightcap as the champs lost their fifth in a row. The Cubs, after losing seven straight, beat southpaw Wilmer Mizell (4-2) and right-hander Bob Friend (5-6), collecting 25 hits in the two games and hitting two homers in each. Dick Ellsworth (2-3) was the first-game winner. Mizell had beaten the Cubs 14 times in 15 decisions going back to 1958. Friend now has lost six in a row as a starter, giving up 10 hits and six runs in four innings in this one.

The Braves won the opener on the four-hit pitching of Bob Buhl (2-4) and a tie-breaking, two-run triple by Hank Aaron in the eighth inning. Left-hander Don Ferrarese (0-2) was the loser in his first NL start. The Phils then broke loose for six runs against Carl Willey (2-1) in the third inning of the second game, with Tony Gonzalez hitting a three-run double and Ken Walters socking a two-run homer Art Mahaffey (6-3) won his fourth in a row with his eighth complete game in nine starts, tops in the majors.

The Detroit Tigers came off with a 2½ game lead in the American League race after the Memorial Day firing, but Baltimore moved into third place, four games behind, with a 6-1 and 2-1 sweep over the Chicago White Sox.

The Orioles did it as southpaw Steve Barber won his seventh with a three-hit shutout and Skinn Brown and Hoyt Wilhelm combined for a four-hitter.

Second place Cleveland shaved a game off Detroit's lead by beating Minnesota twice, 4-3 and 7-5, while the Tigers split with Kansas City, winning 5-3 before the A's came back for a 9-3 decision. New York belted seven home runs and beat Boston 12-3, and Washington beat the Los Angeles Angeles 5-1.

Barber walked six and struck out three while blanking the White Sox on three singles for his fifth success in the last six decisions. The Orioles, who have won seven of their last eight, collected 15 hits with Gus Triandos and Jim Gentile, who socked his 13th home run, each driving in two runs. Bob Shaw (3-4) was the loser.

Brown (5-1) then won his fourth in a row, shutting out the Sox on two singles for eight innings. Wilhelm retired the first two in the ninth, then gave up a homer by Jim Landis—the first run the knuckleball master had allowed in 17 innings for the last place White Sox, who have lost nine of their last 10 and are 0-6 against Baltimore. Billy Pierce (1-4) lost it on Dick Williams' home run in the fourth inning.

The Tigers came from behind

Grant Heads For Big Year With Indians

CLEVELAND (AP) — It's still early in the season, but Cleveland's Jim (Mudcat) Grant is well on his way to his best year in the majors.

With a 5-0 record, he already has won more than half his total for last year when he had a 9-8 mark.

In beating the Minnesota Twins 7-5 Tuesday, Grant moved into a tie with Detroit's Don Mossi for most victories in the league without a defeat. The Indians also took the first game 4-3.

The sweep allowed Cleveland to gain a full game on the Tigers, who split with Kansas City. Cleveland is now only 2½ games out of first.

Much of the credit for Grant's victory goes to Barry Latman, who allowed only two harmless hits in three innings of relief. Grant had a one-hitter going into the sixth when the Twins came up with five runs—two on Bob Allison's homer.

Cleveland socked Pedro Ramos for three runs in the first on a walk, Jim Piersall's single, a double by Vic Power and John Romano's single. It was the 15th consecutive game in which Romano has hit safely.

Cleveland added three more in the fourth to take a 6-0 lead. Willie Kirkland reached first on an error. Romano, Woodie Held, Mike de la Hoz and Piersall followed with singles.

After the Twins' five-run sixth De la Hoz gave Latman a cushion with his first homer of the year.

De la Hoz subbed for Johnny Temple, who has a groin injury. Temple is not scheduled to play tonight, but has a good chance to play Friday, according to Trainer Wally Bock.

Area Baseballers Offered Tryouts By Pro Giants

Circleville area baseballers, 16 to 21 years of age, will have an opportunity to show major league scouts what they can do June 9 and 10.

The San Francisco Giants, currently in contention for the National League lead, will conduct tryouts on those dates in Huntington, W. Va. The sessions will be held on the Owens-Illinois Glass Co. field at the intersection of 9th Ave. and W. 5th St.

The young hopefuls are to bring their own uniforms, gloves and shoes. If a player is given a professional baseball contract, he will be reimbursed for expenses incurred attending the camp.

Local players may obtain further information from James West, 200 Rutledge Rd., Charleston, W. Va.

Rookies Jim Brewer and Jack Curtis started the season on the Chicago Cub pitching staff. Brewer had his jaw broken last season and pitched only 23 innings.

Central State Thinclads Win College Track Test

CLEVELAND (AP) — Central State scored 100 2-3 points Tuesday to win the 15th annual All-Ohio College Track Meet at Baldwin-Wallace's Ray Watts Stadium. The Marauders won 10 of 15 events.

Akron University came in second with 46 5-6 points and defending champion Baldwin - Wallace was third with 35 1-3.

Other teams in order of finish were Kent State 14 2-3, Wooster 14, Ohio University 10, Hiram 9, Ohio Wesleyan 3 ½ and Otterbein 3.

Of the 54 players on Army's 1962 football roster, 24 are residents of Pennsylvania.

Prober Poised For Cleanup Of Boxing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., says the extortion conviction of Frankie Carbo has given Congress “an unparalleled opportunity to effect a final and conclusive cleanup job in professional boxing.”

Carbo, long reputed to be boxing's secret boss, was convicted Tuesday in Los Angeles with four others on charges of trying to muscle in on the earnings of former welterweight champion Don Jordan.

The Senate antitrust and monopoly subcommittee, headed by Kefauver, starts hearings today on the senator's bill which would set up federal regulation to drive racketeers out of boxing. The bill would create the post of federal boxing commissioner with powers to regulate professional boxing.

Under his proposal, Kefauver said, “Men like Carbo and Palermo couldn't operate.”

Frank (Blinky) Palermo, Philadelphia fight manager and allegedly Carbo's front man, was convicted with Carbo.

“Professional boxing in racket-ridden from top to bottom,” Kefauver said in a statement prepared for the start of hearings on his bill.

The bill, however, faces an uphill fight. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has declared he is in favor of federal regulation to drive underworld characters away from the ring, but that his agency is not the appropriate one to take on the licensing powers the bill would provide.

Lebanon Feature Brings Dead Heat

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — The featured pace at Lebanon Raceway Tuesday night ended in a dead heat as both Miss Mike's Counsel and Honor Fama reached the wire in 2:08 3-5.

Miss Mike's Counsel, a 4-year-old brown mare driven by Charles Miller and owned by Willard H. Micksell, Richmond, Ind., paid $7.60. Honor Fama, her 7-year-old bay rival, was driven by her owner, A. M. Worline, paying $4.

The 2,274 patrons saw a spill in the seventh event, a C-3 pace, as Worline's Fargo pulled out to start around the field on the near turn and piled up with Wild Bee and Wilmington's Lue. William Lewter, Lawrenceburg, Tenn., suffered a fractured ankle and shoulder injuries.

Dartmouth's football halfback Alan Rozycki is also a standout lacrosse player.

NEW U.S. MILE KING—In a special race at Eugene, Ore., Dyrrol Burleson, the Oregon U. mile star, ran the distance in 3:57.6 to set a new U.S. citizens' record for the distance. His mark replaces the 3:58 turned in by Jim Beatty last May.

MEYER Hay Conditioner
For best quality hay, roll it through a fast, rugged Meyer Hay Conditioner. Stems are cracked entire length — not crimped — dry in half-the-time, remain pliable, green, sweet-smelling, and keep their protein-packed leaves. Juices are sealed in — hay has greater feed value . . . brings several dollars per ton more than ordinary hay. Yet Meyer is priced lower.

New improved large diameter Rotary Pick-Up lifts, loosens and feeds hay uniformly to new exclusive, non-clogging steel rolls — floats freely over rocks and terraces. Works under all conditions — heavy or thin hay — smooth or uneven rocky terrain.

Paris Telecast Sets Stage for Kennedy Visit

Kennedy set the stage for his European venture in summit diplomacy Tuesday night in a broadcast to the French people, saying "this is a dangerous time for us all." Speaking specifically of his meeting with Khrushchev, he said he hoped through better understanding to "lessen the chance of miscalculation" by the Soviet leader.

"If we can reach a greater understanding on the question of (nuclear) testing and disarmament, perhaps on Laos, perhaps on general matters which divide us," he said, "I think that it would make it easier for us to look forward with hope for the future."

Masses of red, white and blue flags—the French tricolor and the Stars and Stripes — decked Orly Airport and bestowed a festival air on the streets leading into the tree-lined heart of Paris.

American officials hopefully predicted that Kennedy and De Gaulle would get on well together despite serious differences in their policies toward the North Atlantic Alliance and the United Nations. U.S. officials were confident that Mrs. Kennedy, chic and pretty and with French family ties in her background, would be a smashing success in this international fashion capital.

Kennedy's main purposes in coming to France, U.S. officials said, were to get acquainted with De Gaulle, to promote greater unity within the Atlantic Alliance, and to seek common policies on disputes between the Soviet Union and the West. Kennedy had previously conferred in Washington with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

De Gaulle discussed the visit with his Cabinet in a late meeting at the Elysee Palace Tuesday.

De Gaulle was reported ready to press Kennedy to take a completely inflexible position on Berlin in his discussion next week-end with Khrushchev. Informants familiar with De Gaulle's estimate of the grim Berlin outlook say he feels that Khrushchev would take anything less than a no-compromise stand as a sign of weakness.

Some informants say that De Gaulle wants to know that in a showdown over Berlin Kennedy is prepared to use all necessary force. The French leader is reported to have been disturbed by Kennedy's recent emphasis on the need to build up the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's conventional strength in Europe.

Bomb Scare Checked Out

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Thousands watched the Memorial Day parade here unaware of a search for a bomb near the reviewing stand. Firemen received a telephone call from an unidentified person who reported that a bomb had been planted in a store. No bomb was found.

Six thousand pounds of steam are used in drying each ton of newsprint.

Worry of FALSE TEETH Slipping or Irritating?

Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, soapy, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Fair skies prevailed over Ohio during the night. Unseasonably cool weather occurred again in the eastern counties but a warming trend spread into the western section.

Early morning temperatures today varied from 52 degrees in Cincinnati and Toledo to 38 in Zanesville. Columbus and Marietta had 41, Cleveland 47.

High pressure centered over the Virginias will dominate the Ohio weather today, giving fair skies and temperatures in the 70s or low 80s. However, a low pressure area and its associated cold front will extend from central Wisconsin southwestward across Iowa and Kansas and will begin to influence the Ohio weather.

Partly cloudy skies will prevail tonight and Thursday with a chance of showers late tonight and scattered showers and thundershowers Thursday. Warming will continue over the state tonight and Thursday.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

SOUTHERN & CENTRAL OHIO —Temperatures will average near normal to 4 degrees above. Normal high 79-83, normal low 55-60. Rather warm throughout period. Precipitation will average around one-quarter to one-half inch in widely scattered showers and thundershowers Thursday through Monday, mostly around Monday.

Hungarian Jews Abandon Plan To Assassinate Nazi

JERUSALEM (AP)—The Jews in Hungary decided against trying to kill Adolf Eichmann for fear that Nazi Germany had men in reserve who were even worse, a survivor of the World War II slaughter testified today.

Hansi Brand told the Eichmann trial court the Jewish leaders in Budapest were so frantic in the summer of 1944 that they frequently discussed the possibility of assassinating the Gestapo chief who directed the extermination of Europe's Jewry.

But "we were convinced that maybe someone else would come in his place and the death mills would continue maybe at an increased pace," Mrs. Brand said.

Eichmann, chief of the Gestapo's Jewish Affairs Office in Berlin, took to the field in Hungary to hasten deportations to the Auschwitz gas chambers. Evidence has been introduced that this pace reached as high as 12,000 a day.

Mrs. Brand and her husband, Joel, were cross-examined by the court and by Eichmann's defense counsel on their testimony of events in Budapest. They were also taken again over the ground of Joel Brand's mission to Turkey and Palestine with Eichmann's offer to trade one million Jewish lives for 10,000 trucks to be used on the Soviet front.

Both witnesses reiterated that the Eichmann proposal stemmed directly from Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler as early as April-May 1944.

Brand said it was, in his opinion, a move by Himmler to use the remaining two million Jews in Europe as a wedge for broader negotiations with the Western allies.

Himmler's effort to salvage something out of the growing wreckage apparently infected all the SS officers in Budapest, Brand said.

"The SD (security police), the SS intelligence and even the Hungarian counter-intelligence, all of a sudden tried to curry our favor," the witness said.

Only Eichmann seemed impervious to the atmosphere of that time, both of the Brands said.
